SEMINAR SERIES (hybrid)

Dr Felicia Knaul, international palliative care specialist and health economist, will be presenting a seminar series in the Faculty of Health Sciences.

- “Lancet Commission on Palliative Care” 11 July 2023, 13:00-14:00
- “Closing the Cancer Divide” 13 July 2023, 13:00-14:00
- “Gender based violence” 13 July 2023, 17:15-18:00

Dr Knaul is internationally recognised for her transformative, translational research in global health, health systems, and health economics focused on reducing inequities. Her research has influenced policy and improved the condition of at-risk populations in low- and middle-income countries and especially Latin America. Her work is focused on access to pain relief and palliative care, cancer and especially breast cancer, violence against women and children, health systems and reform, health financing, women and health, medical employment, poverty and inequity, female labour force participation, and at-risk children and youth.
