

UCT DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY AND MENTAL HEALTH: DIVISION OF INTELLECTUAL DISABILITY
MENTAL HEALTH MONTH CONFERENCE 6th OCTOBER 2020, 08h30 – 13h30

LEGAL AND ETHICAL CONCERNS REGARDING PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITY AND THE LAW

08h30 to 12h30: Legal and ethical concerns regarding people with intellectual disability and the law

Professor Sean Kaliski

Dr Mo Nagdee

Dr Evah Mulutsi

Justice V C Saldanha & Dr Peter Smith

Ms Sarah Ntaka

Forensic Mental Health Services and Intellectual Disability: An uncomfortable fit.

Offending behaviour and Intellectual Disability: A review of criminogenic theories and evidence.

The legal and ethical concerns regarding people with Mental and Intellectual Disability and the law.

Achieving justice for people living with intellectual disability in the clinical services.

Access to justice for persons with intellectual disability.

12h30 to 13h30: DPMH Social Responsiveness Lecture and Conference Keynote address

Professor Anthony Pillay

Intellectual disability in forensic mental health.

RSVP instructions:

Due to COVID-19 the conference will be hosted on-line via Zoom.
Attendees will be limited to 100 per the technical restrictions dictated by Zoom so kindly RSVP by completing the attached form and emailing it to n.tifus@uct.ac.za.

Special thanks:

Alta Du Toit School: Band - Alexandra Hospital Forensic patients: Art work - Charlotte Moses: Facilitating Alexandra Hospital art work
Ray Mbatsane: Facilitating Alta du Toit recordings - Mr Mohamed Abbas: programme and slide show designs - Ms Aimee Isaacs: technical assistance