

Funding Opportunity Announcement: The James Gear International Fellowship

Submission deadline of 15 September 2022

The Poliomyelitis Research Foundation (PRF) has on offer this fellowship as a prestige award.

Preference is given to SA citizens and SA Permanent residents to enable recipients to develop their research careers in overseas academic institutions. Those eligible for the award are postgraduates with at least a medical degree or degree in veterinary sciences or a doctorate in the sciences or equivalents.

Potential applicants may need to be interviewed by members of the Scientific Advisory Panel.

The award value is R 350,000 + flight (one year only)
Fellows will be required to give an undertaking to return to South Africa for at least 3 years upon completion of their research project internationally.
On return to South Africa, the applicant can apply for an amount of R 250,000 for a 1-year post-fellowship research grant at an approved South African Institution.

Please visit their website (www.prf.ac.za) for further information and apply online at the below link:

<https://www.prf.ac.za/applications/james-gear-international-fellowship/>

The deadlines for submission of applications must strictly be adhered to, with closing dates of the 28 February and 15 September each year.

Applications must arrive at the NICD on or before the current deadline date of the 15th of September 2022. No late applications will be considered.

Contact prf@nicd.ac.za